Homecoming 1975

The Good Ole Days

The Good Ole Days

"To everything there is a season..." and homecoming is one of the busiest seasons at B-PC. The "Good Ole Days" was selected as this year's theme. Many favorite homecoming traditions were heartily enjoyed by students and faculty. Wednesday night, the pep band and cheerleaders led the snake dance through town and back to the school for the bonfire. Coach Weber and the players inspired everyone with their speeches filled with optimism for the homecoming game. The next day luck was with the class of '76 once again as they stole first place on hall decorations. The seniors proved to be tough competition, but were forced to settle for second. That afternoon, with the Spartan marching band leading the big parade, the seniors of '75 proudly presented the first place float, "Argyles will Sock'em." The sight of the giant argyle sock and saddle shoe filled many hearts with nostalgia for the "good old days." The juniors float finished second with the sophomores close behind. As time for the game drew near, so did the thunderclouds, and by halftime the rain was pouring down. The mean Spartan machine played a tough game, but the Ducks from Havana used the swampy field to their advantage and swam for a victory. Spirits were revived quickly at the sight of the gym where the sophomores had done a fantastic job. The theme was "At the Hop" and a jukebox in the center of the gym accented the effect. Everyone danced and enjoyed themselves until at last it was time for the coronation. Spontaneous applause filled the gym when Jane Hawkins and Mark Walton were announced as queen and king of the 1974 Homecoming. Although many of these memories are still fresh in our minds now, in the future we'll probably be referring to them as the "Good Ole Days."

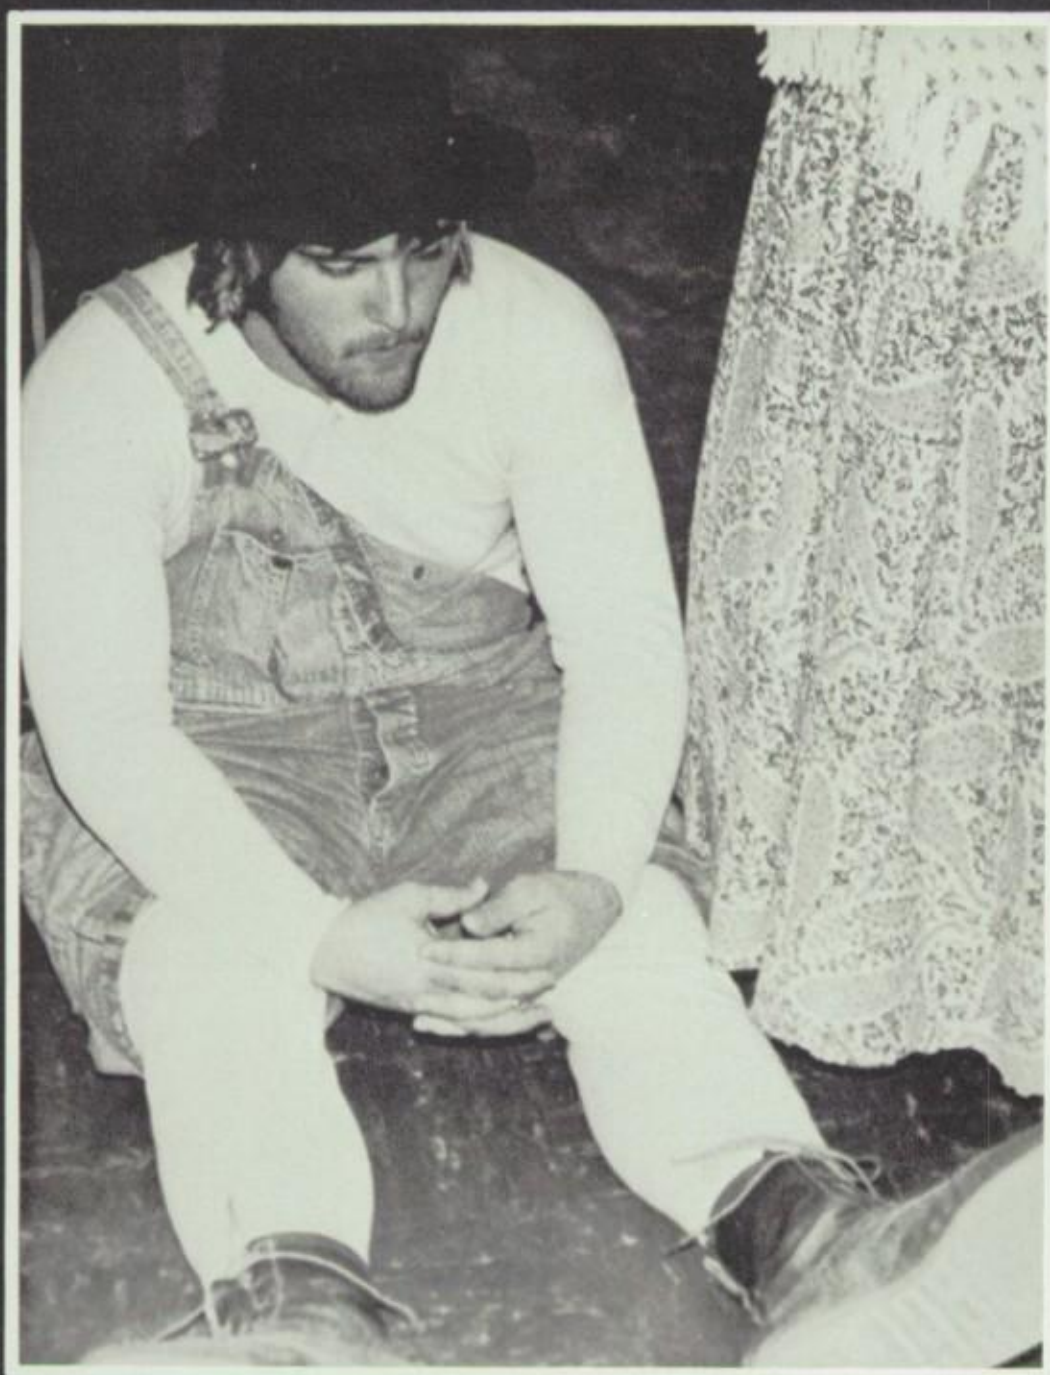

The 1974 Homecoming candidates were: Kathy Dilts and Albert Coulter, Jane Hawkins and Rick Ferguson, Debbie Knapp and Doug Johnson, Debbie McGrew and Greg Pensinger, Laura Mills and Mark Walton. The 1973 Homecoming Royalty was Loretta O'Connor and George Gray.

Activities

Desperate Ambrose

On November 15, 1974, the Senior Class presented their production of "Desperate Ambrose" to a completely filled auditorium. Donald Payton's farce comedy began when two vaudeville comedians were mistaken as fierce outlaws in a town where even the sheriff was crooked. Next three new girls came to the town to reopen a rundown hotel that the sheriff had already resold. After some drugged coffee, a few supposed fights and two weddings the heros finally got their heroines and the curtains closed on the last play given by the Class of '75.

Christmas Candles Light The Way . . .

The Music Department of the Bushnell-Prairie City High School highlighted the Christmas season with their annual Christmas Cantata on December 16, 1974. The event began with the Varsity and Girls' Chorus presenting many seasonal favorites.

Then the curtain opened on "Our Gang," the Swing Choir, who enlightened the audience with their musical talents. The auditorium then filled with silence as the Concert Choir entered carrying their lighted candles. The officers then robed twenty-two new members, and the choir presented their cantata entitled "God-Man." After this evening of shared holiday music, the participants and audience left instilled with the true meaning of Christmas.

"Deadly Ernest" was the fun-filled three act frolic produced by the Junior Class on March 14, 1975. In despair over the loss of his job, his girl, and his room in his aunt's boarding house, Henry Gilcrest paid $17.83 to a bum in the park to have a "hit" man named Ernest put him out of his misery. Henry then recovered his girl, his room, and his job and was overjoyed until he remembered "Deadly Ernest". Henry was really nervous then, especially when virtually everyone he encountered was named Ernest! Poor Henry was constantly on the run until the end when he discovered that "Ernest" didn't even exist.

... And It Was A Time For Spring Show!!

"The Pajama Game", a hilarious Broadway musical was presented by the music department on May 9 and 10. The story was one of "labor and management." As the plot unfolded, the workers' union of the Sleep-Tite Pajama factory was fighting for a 7 1/2 cent raise. Complications arose as Sid, the new superintendent, fell in love with Babe, the head of the Grievance Committee and a staunch supporter of the union. Because they were on opposite sides of the conflict Babe and Sid just didn't see eye to eye so Sid decided he was going to save the labor problem. He concluded that he would have to get the key to the company ledger from Gladys, the secretary to the manager, Mr. Hassler. In order to get the key Sid took Gladys out to a hot spot called "Hernando's Hideaway." Neither Babe nor Hines, Gladys boyfriend, the company time-study man, liked that at all. Everything really fell apart then, as Hines either lost his pants or threw a knife at somebody. Luckily Sid came to the rescue by talking Hassler into giving the raise. Babe forgave Sid for everything, Hines made up with Gladys, the union got its 7 1/2 cents, and as Hines so aptly said in the end, "...everybody won!!"

... And Then A Time For Prom

The Junior class sponsored a 1975 Prom that is sure to linger in the minds of everyone for years to come. The gym, decorated as the "White Rose Nightclub," was elaborately adorned with red, white, and silver streamers, and was enclosed by an imitation stone wall and blue sky around the outer edge to complete the decor. The annual event commenced at 8:00 p.m. on May 3, 1975 with the announcement of the couple's arrival. After being introduced, a maitre'd conducted the guests to tables around the top of the gym, where everyone enjoyed the steak dinner, served by sophomore waiters and waitresses. While the students and teachers proceeded to eat, the band for the evening, "Essex," played dinner music, which eventually converted to rock music as the couples finished eating and began to dance. As the dance came to a close, the "White Rose Nightclub" eventually emptied of people leaving only cherished memories that will never perish.

Girls Make A Big Hit

The girls baseball team for this year was something new at B-PC. The girls were out practicing every night, with no help from the football team. These girls should be recognized for their determination because they were the first.

The '75 Spartan team was much better than its record showed. Injuries and that unlucky jinx that comes in football were the only things that held the mighty Spartans down. Coach Weber should be congratulated for shaping this team into what it was. Outstanding Spartan players were Albert Coulter, playing only 2/3 of the season and acquiring 661 yards rushing; Most Valuable Player, Bart Arthur; Most Improved Honors shared by Clyde Fox and Bruce Speer.

The Man For All Seasons

Mr. Zimmerman

The 1974-1975 Instrumental Department was commenced in August with the introduction of the new Director, Mr. Zimmerman. The marching band participated in the Fall Festival Parade, the Homecoming Parade, the WIU parade and performed in pre-game and half-time shows at home football games. As football season ended, pep and concert bands were started. The pep band played for pep assemblies and home basketball games, helping to revive the Spartan spirit. The concert band presented a concert January 28, and played a variety of selections. They also attended contest in April.

RICHARD GREER
Principal

With the retirement of Mr. Denton White, we have a new Superintendent this year, Dr. Thomas Crowell. We would like to welcome Dr. Crowell to B-PC, and thank him for all the things he has done this past year. This being Dr. Crowell's first year with us, we think he has done an outstanding job, and has worked and gotten along well with the rest of the administration.

SURVIVAL BPC STYLE

Homework:

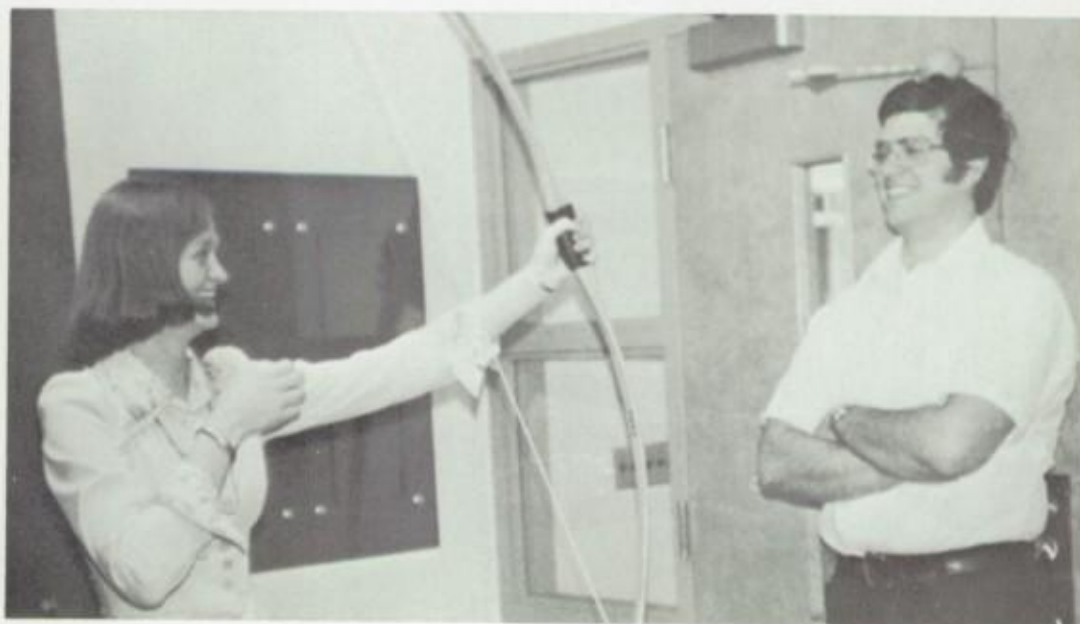

Homework should generally be avoided,
as a matter of principle; but when unavoidable . . .

How To Survive Teachers

Tune in to WLS. Tune out the teacher.
Keep them on their toes with constant surprises.
Get them mad at each other so they'll leave you alone.
Get them before they get you.

How To Survive A Week

MONDAY: In between naps, pray for Friday.

FRIDAY: Celebrate!

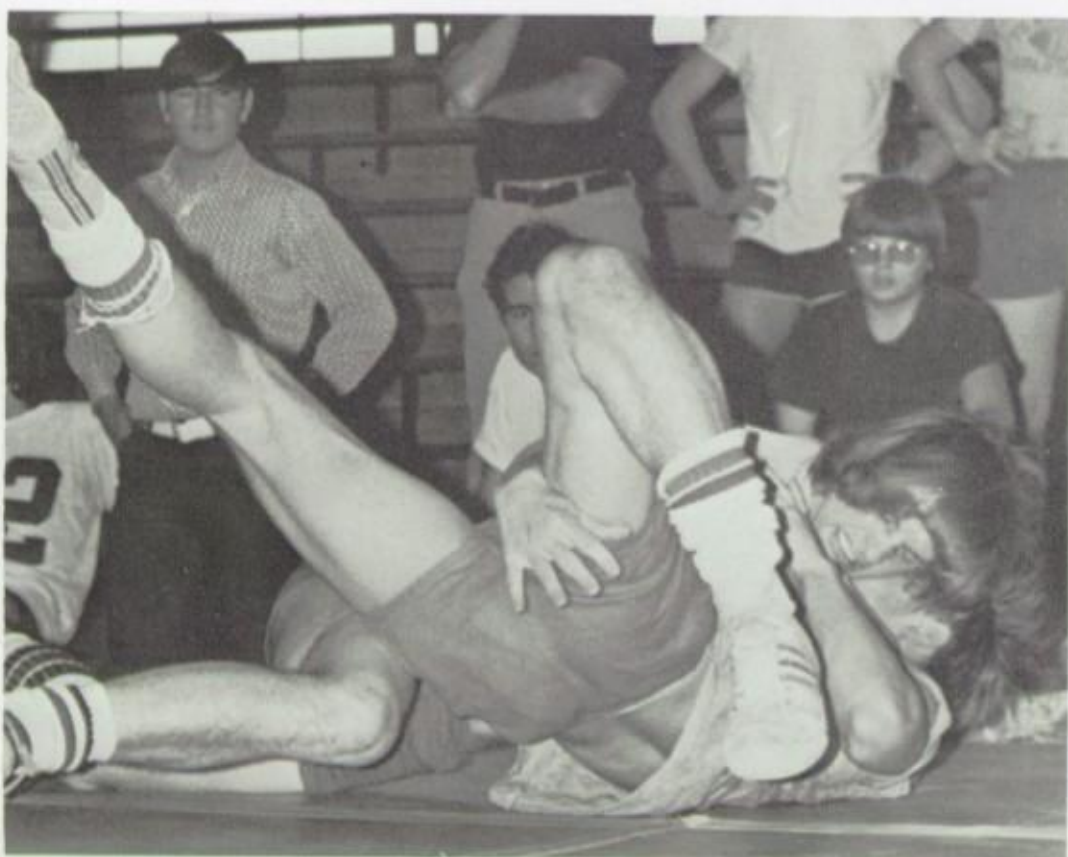

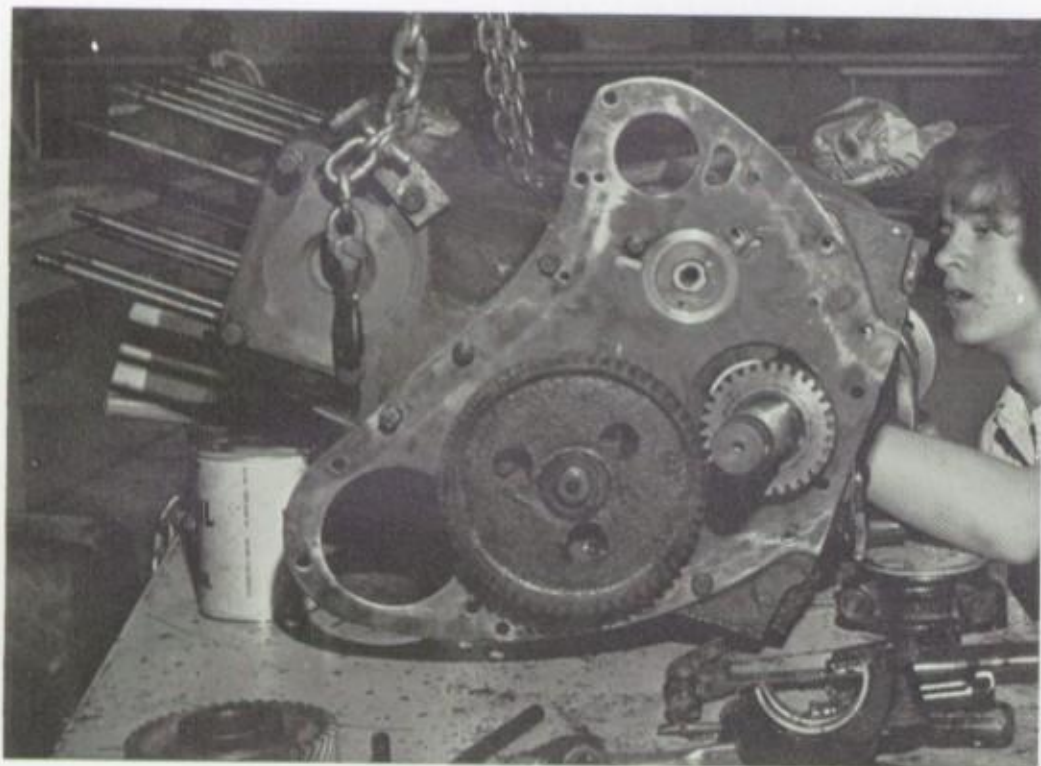

How To Survive Life At B-PC

Don't let anyone get you down.

Avoid complex situations.

Don't be surprised at anything.

Above all, stay CALM!

A black and white photograph of a long, empty school hallway. The hallway has a polished floor that reflects the overhead fluorescent lights. On the right side, there are several doors and a bulletin board. In the distance, a person is walking away from the camera. The perspective is from one end of the hallway, looking down its length.

An extra thanks goes to Mr. Scott and Mr. Kugler for their special photography, to Mrs. Stephens and Miss Sweney for their art work, and to Mrs. Kugler for her long hours of patience and advice.

Time is the most undefinable yet paradoxical of things; the past is gone, the future has not come, and the present becomes the past even while we attempt to define it, and, like the flash of the lightning, at once exists and expires.
